

Dream Homes of Lebanon & Beyond, Volume II

Continuing her foray into Lebanon's most spectacular residences, Nada Salamé, along with her daughter Nour Abillama, offers gorgeous, colorful photographs and engaging text about some of the country's most palatial and unique interiors.

Available at bookstores throughout Lebanon.

Damascus: A Guide

The newest guidebook to Damascus comes courtesy of Carole Corm and offers original city trails, interviews with locals, detailed listings and a section written by guest authors on various topics related to the city.

Available at bookstores throughout Lebanon.

Be my Guest

Covering 15 theme parties, this delightful book teaches you how to build a successful theme party. Written by Rena Sindi, Be My Guest runs through the whole shebang, including invitations, table settings, recipes, cocktails, decorations and music.

Available at Aïshti stores.

Pages in a dream

High Society

With nostalgia and wit, author Nick Foulkes tells the fascinating tale of Manhattan's upper class, from the 17th century to the present. Focusing on society and culture, and offering hard-to-find photographs, Foulkes explores the lives of the Vanderbilts, Fricks, Morgans and Astors, among others.

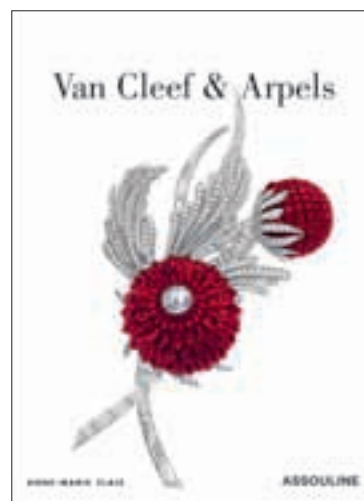

Available at Aïshti stores.

American Fashion Designers at Home

Rima Suqi's beautifully photographed book explores the private living spaces of some of the world's most revered fashion designers, including Diane von Furstenberg, Carolina Herrera, Tommy Hilfiger and Kate Spade.

Available at Aïshti stores.

Van Cleef & Arpels

Anne-Marie Clais takes a glittery spin through Van Cleef & Arpels' 125-year-history in this luxurious volume that focuses on the illustrious Parisian jewelry house. Beginning in 1906, when Van Cleef & Arpels opened their first store on Place Vendôme in Paris, and running through their most dramatic jewelry collections, Clais offers up a look at this mythic jeweler.

Available at Aïshti stores.